Here's The Deal...

This is a bank owned property that will be sold by absolute auction above the opening bid of $90,000. That's a huge discount off the former listed price and works out at less than $28 a square foot. Compare a new building at over $100 a square foot and you can see the savings and investment potential. A bid of $90,000 or above means the property will be sold that day, period...period...period.
